

West African Genetic Medicine Centre (WAGMC)
College of Health Sciences
University of Ghana

Vacancies for National Service Personnel

The West African Genetic Medicine Centre (WAGMC), College of Health Sciences, is accepting applications for National Service Personnel. Successful candidates will be exposed to a diverse and inclusive environment and have a unique opportunity to develop practical firsthand experience in research and laboratory training and administrative skills.

Visit our website to learn more about our internship programme : bit.ly/wagmc-intern

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

Applicants must be final year students studying Basic and Applied Health Sciences, Business Administration, Accounting, Information Technology, English or Social Sciences and must have a GPA of 3.0 by the time of application.

COMPETENCIES

- Be a team player, be innovative and exhibit initiative, ambition and drive
- Computer literate
- Able to work in a challenging environment

Apply Now

Email the following documents to:
careers@wagmc.org

- An application letter
- One page curriculum vitae
- One page personal statement
- Copy of your transcript
- Copy of your student ID card
- NSS PIN and Number

Please note that only shortlisted applicants will be contacted

Application ends

31st May 2021

West African Genetic Medicine Centre
www.wagmc.org
info.wagmc.org
0302959246

WAGMC_UG
@wagmcUG
wagmc_ug

Need More Information;
Talk to us.
West African Genetic Medicine Centre (WAGMC)
1 Ebenezer Laing Road
University of Ghana
Legon, Accra