

Call for Scholarship Application

Fishing for the Future Project (F4F)

Department of Marine and Fisheries Sciences, University of Ghana

The Department of Marine and Fisheries Sciences in collaboration with the Royal Society of London and African Academy of Sciences through the Future Leaders – African Independent Research (FLAIR) Fellowships has begun a two year research project.

The Fishing for the Future(F4F) Project which seeks to understand how changing climate coupled with environmental pollution are likely to affect current and future populations of C. tulipa and C. gasar and their fisheries at large.

The Scholarship Package includes:

- Tuition fees
- Monthly stipend
- Research cost

Requirements

Applicants must generally qualify for admission into an Mphil programme at the University of Ghana. In addition all applicants must :

1. Have a good undergraduate degree in marine or fisheries sciences, environmental science, environmental chemistry, physical science, or natural resource management.
2. Submit :
Cover letter, academic transcripts, statement of motivation, maximum 4-paged research proposal.
3. Candidate should have applied to pursue an MPhil in Marine or Fisheries Science in the Department of Marine and Fisheries Sciences of the University of Ghana starting September 2020

Contact :

All shortlisted applicants will be invited for an interview after the closing dates. Females are particularly encouraged to apply.

All enquiries should be sent to this email address: brempong5@gmail.com and copy edemmahu@gmail.com

Deadline for application : 10th July, 2020.