As a scholarship recipient, you will receive full support for your tuition, lodging, books and incidentals during your tertiary education. This is conditional on the following:

- That you are not currently receiving support through any other scholarship program and pledge not accept any other scholarship while in the EPI program.
- That you maintain satisfactory academic progress with a minimum B average throughout your university program

- That, during non-school periods, you work in a company sponsored internship program or do community service within Ghana. This includes mentorship and guidance regarding the importance of education to the youth in your home community.
- That you keep EPI informed of your contact information and academic progress and to prepare required reports as may be requested
- That upon graduation, you work for a minimum of two years in Ghana
- That in the course of time, when and if possible, you consider contributing to EPI to help other needy students obtain their university education
- That you allow your name to be published in association with this program and any related sponsors

I agree that if I am awarded and accept sponsorship from Educational Pathways International, I will adhere to the terms and conditions of this scholarship. I understand that if I fail to comply with any of these requirements or if I am dishonest with any portion of this application form, my sponsorship may be withdrawn and my payments terminated. I also agree, upon graduation, that I will incur the two-year service requirement.

Please note that all information provided in this application will be cross-checked with your university personal file. Any discrepancies will result in being removed from consideration for an EPI scholarship.

Selection Process

The following selection criteria are used when considering candidates for the Educational Pathways International Program:

- Academic achievement and intelligence (including grades and achievement tests, academic awards and honors, substantive assessments by teachers, including letters of recommendation, as well as possession of a high number of characteristics outlined in the Educational Pathways International Gifted Children definition).
- Unmet financial need (limited family income and/or insufficient funds to cover most or all educational-related expenses)
- The will to succeed (determination, perseverance, and success in other pursuits)
- Submission of three essays describing why this individual feels he/she should be considered for the program and how upon graduation he/she will make a difference within his or her country of residence
- Acceptance in an accredited, approved institution of higher learning

What is a Gifted Child?
